Introduction to Web Driver

Date: January 1 to January 12

- What is?

- How it works?

- What Browser Options are meant for?

- Which are the Browser Options?

- (Example In Code) How to initialize it?

- (Example In Code) How to use the Browser Options?

- (Example In Code) Multi-browser testing

Blueriver

Web Driver Challenge

Summary
The participant will learn what is the WebDriver and how to use it to extract help full information from the web page

Date: January 15 to January 31

Evaluation Points
- Create automation script to open the focal point main page
- The script need to be executed using different browsers (this should be passed through execution command)
- Extract page information through web driver, Title, Base URL, page html, commands log
- Open a new tab and navigate between them
- Close the first tab and re open the focal point login page
- Manage browser alerts
- Correctly close the open browser and state the difference between quit and close methods.

Helpful Links
- https://www.selenium.dev/documentation/webdriver/interactions/
- https://www.selenium.dev/documentation/webdriver/interactions/alerts/

Blueriver